WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 26.—Kansas rea estate men have instituted a unique plan by which to sell farm property. In ev office there is a pretty young woman, who not only acts as stenographer, but as safeswoman. When a customer comes to town she is invited by the agent to drive out into the country with them. In this way she becomes acquainted with the stranger, and it is her duty to call his attention to all of the beauties of the country, not including herself. She interests him while they are driving out and the prospective buyer does not realize fust how far out the farm is situated until he comes to drive it alone. The sale of many farms at long distances from the city are effected in this way for good prices. Land sales are increasing on account of the unprecedented boom in this office there is a pretty young woman, who impany sent the draft for the first paysent on the Little Kanawha Railroad."

One of the recent rumors about a deal or the Western Maryland was to the fact that the Goulds were after it for the purpose of gaining an outlet to the tlantic Coast for the Wabash system.
The has also been reported at various times that the West Virginia Central would dropped among his men, and was unconscious. The priest carried him up the ladder to the street and helped restore ladder to the street and helped restore him to consciousness.

More than twenty firemen were overcome before the fire was put out. Among them were Battalion Chief Cruger, Captain Clark, of ergine No. 9, and Lieut. Arthur Fitzgerald. The fire was in the sub-cellar of the five-story building of 25 Park Place, and it gave the men a hard fight for two hours and a half.

Battalion Chief Cruger was the first chief on the scene, and he saw at once that it was a dangerous situation. He turned in a second alarm at once, and a third alarm was rung within five minutes. Smoke came from the sub-cellar in such dense clouds that the firemen were forced to cut holes in the flooring. Several firemen were overcome almost immediately, and their comrades carried them out. It was at this time that the chaplain made the plucky dash into the building.

She invited the boys to be her guests this week, and a few nights ago they were entertained by her. While they were at her house she learned that they had not been able to purchase uniforms. Now the announcement has been made that she is to purchase uniforms for the boys. She is only waiting for them to decide on what color and style they want. THE WEBER PIANO CO., 108 Fifth Ave., New York. Gentlemen: It is my wish, and that of the Opera Company, Gentlemen: It is my wish, and that of the Opera Company, that the Weber Piano shall be used at the Opera House next season as heretofore. The magnificent Concert Grands which you have sent us for the Sunday night concerts have more than confirmed the impression that in tone quality, power, and carrying capacity the Weber has no superior in the world. The leading artists of the country have privately expressed to me their delight in the instruments (both Grands and Uprights) furnished for their private use, and it is the unanimous verdict that for concert work, as well as for accompanying the voice in singing the Weber Piano is unequaled. With regards and in singing, the Weber Piano is unequaled. With regards and best wishes for your continued prosperity,

TO DEHORN A SAVAGE DEER.

The Chinese Specimen at the New York Zoo Very Dangerous.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.-The Boxer, the Chinese deer that so nearly killed one of the keepers in the New York Zoological Park last Monday, will be dehorned. He has grown more unmanageable and his ferocity is such that he is a menace to those who care for him Yesterday, lack-ing a keeper to attack, he made an on-slaught on the fence that surrounds his run and tried to break it down. The fence was too strong for him, and all that The Boxer accomplished was to break about ten inches off his right horn. This leaves him a stump about fourteen inches long. While the loss of the end of the deer's horn spoils his beauty, Assistant Curator Ditmars is not sorry the accident happened. The animal is so dengerous that, now he has been maimed, both borns will be by PETER NEWELL cut off close to his head. It is expected that the loss of his weapons will make him less fierce. The dehorning will be
